TYPO is an inspiring typography magazine and a valuable resource of information for professional typographers, graphic designers, artists, students and their educators, as well as for any typography enthusiast. Our main goal is to discuss typography and graphic design from different point of view, and with connection to other fields such as architecture, photography, social science, aesthetics and many others. The team of magazine editors consists of young, active and crative graphic designers and typographers, supported by renowned professionals in these industries. TYPO is published bi-monthly in English and Czech in an unconventional format 250 x 310 mm.
